Choose one of the following questions.

01 Fruit and vegetables

Fruit and vegetables have provided a rich source of inspiration for artists. Examples can be seen in the decorative ceramics of Kate Malone, in the colourful paintings of Janet Fish, in the early still-life paintings of Vincent van Gogh and in the elaborate carvings of Grinling Gibbons. Investigate appropriate sources and produce your own response to Fruit and vegetables.

[96 marks]

02 Rural landscape

The rural landscape is central to the prints of Samuel Palmer, to the colourful pastels of David Blackburn and to the photography and land art of Robert Smithson. It has enabled them to explore physical space, illusion and spirituality. Investigate appropriate sources and produce your own response to Rural landscape.

[96 marks]

03 Isolation

Isolation has been a recurring issue in twentieth-century art. It has been a feature of the solitary sculptures of Alberto Giacometti, of the melancholic figure paintings of Edvard Munch and of the triptychs of Francis Bacon. Investigate appropriate sources and produce your own response to Isolation.

[96 marks]

04 Domestic interiors

Domestic interiors have been represented very differently at particular times. Jan Vermeer explored the use of light whereas Edgar Degas captured intimate moments. John Bratby focused on the mundane and Edward Kienholz developed the lonely aspects of interiors in his installations. Investigate appropriate sources and produce your own response to Domestic interiors.

[96 marks]*05 Folded

The way fabrics and other materials have been folded, crumpled and creased has formed aspects of the work of artists such as Diego Velázquez, Alison Watts and Wouter Dam. They have used a variety of materials, ranging from paint to clay, which has resulted in different types of work being produced. Investigate appropriate sources and produce your own response to Folded.

[96 marks]*06 Technological change

Technological change has been a central feature in the work of many artists. Examples can be seen in Edward Burtynsky's documentary photography of the Chittagong ship-breaking yards. Theo Jansen has created mechanical walking sculptures. Christopher R W Nevinson produced industrial prints. Investigate appropriate sources and produce your own response to Technological change.

[96 marks]*07 Festivals

Colour, mythological creatures and decoration are key elements in festivals such as the Hindu Holi Festival of Colours, the Chinese New Year and the Notting Hill Carnival. Investigate appropriate sources and produce your own response, in two or three dimensions, to Festivals.

[96 marks]
