Sources B and C for use in answering Question 02

Source A

An American cartoon published in 1972. The title of the cartoon was 'Where it stops, nobody knows!'.

It shows President Nixon as a gambler.

Source B

Adapted from a statement to the American people made by President Truman in June 1950.

South Korea has been attacked by invading forces from Communist North Korea. The invaders ignored a United Nations resolution which told them to return to above the 38th Parallel. The United Nations asked its members to help carry out this resolution. I have ordered United States forces to support the South Korean army.

Source C

A poster designed in 1951 by a group of artists working for the Communist government of China.

It was widely-distributed and says 'Long live the victory of the Korean People's Army and the Chinese People's Volunteer Army!'.
